BIRDS AND CATS VASES

STEVENSON

It's interesting, I can't bring myself to do paintings or such, and it's the same reason why figures are difficult because I can't imagine the reason for their existence. So I suppose in quite a protestant way if they have a use I can do it. I'm quite happy to have vases that I never put flowers in. But I quite like the thought that if you want to you can put flowers in, and in fact some of them I think would be best with flowers in them, they would be completed. I get so involved with them but then sometimes I think 'but what's that all about, they're just fucking vases
